A Director in Cherry Bekaert's Valuation Services practice, Tim assists clients in a variety of industries, including software and technology, healthcare, transportation and logistics, hospitality and government contracting. Clients depend on Tim's experience to guide them through valuations, mergers, acquisitions and commercial litigation matters. Tim currently specializes in valuations for financial reporting purposes such as purchase price allocations and goodwill impairment, tax planning including corporate restructuring and estate and gift, and valuations of complex securities.

Tim began his valuation career in 1999 at an investment banking and valuation firm located in Haddonfield, New Jersey. He gained valuable experience working on various projects in the Philadelphia area, including some high profile cases in the valuation arena. He moved to South Florida in 2002 to join a regional firm as part of the firm's developing valuation practice. There, Tim continued to gain experience in valuation and worked on numerous commercial litigation cases with some of the largest regional and national law firms in the country. He joined Cherry Bekaert in 2010 as part of the South Florida practice and has been an integral part of the Valuation team, both locally and nationally since joining the Firm.
