An Assurance Partner in Cherry Bekaert's Nashville office, Ross focuses his practice on providing financial statement audit, financial reporting and advisory services to growing, middle-market clients.

With an auditing and accounting career beginning in 2001, Ross's background includes working with development stage/start-up enterprises; private equity-backed companies; and both privately-held and publicly-traded corporations. Ross has extensive experience with SEC reporting and compliance, IPO readiness and working with clients on a variety of transactions, including debt and private equity financing, initial public offerings, and mergers and acquisitions. His primary industry focus includes health & life sciences, consumer markets, industrial, and technology sectors.

Prior to joining Cherry Bekaert, Ross was an audit senior manager at a Big Four accounting firm and previously worked for a large regional CPA firm.
